

My New Tattoo

JOE FERGUSON, PhD

PhD Clinical Psychology,

I'm not dead yet, not by a long shot! I am healthy and vigorous at 63, although I do recognize this as a terminal condition.

I therefore seek an ongoing series of novel and stimulating experiences on a moderately urgent basis, to accessorize my life. Although I am reliable and responsible, I am not otherwise too predictable. This is my new tattoo. By the time you read this I will have surprised Mary with it on our 14th wedding anniversary. I like to keep her guessing a bit, and you too. For me, this is a necessity. I trusted Shay Bredimus at Outer Limits Tattoo in Long Beach, and I'm glad I did. Trust me. Call me.
