ASSESSMENT CONTRACT FOR PSYCHOLOGY KNOWLEDGE AREAS
KA19 Felix Seminar in Group Psychology with John Gladfelter

In preparation for KA19 I have just completed Jack Saporta's KA3 History & Systems seminar and I am contracting with Gene Kerfoot for an assessment in KA4: Theories of Personality & Psychotherapy. I have read Freud, Yalom, Maslow, Skinner, Rogers, Kohler, Minsky, Pinker, Dennett, Bugental, James, Chomsky, Langs, May, Fromm, Sullivan, Dave Barry and many others. I have also read widely in the physical sciences, history, and philosophy. Information science, systems analysis and organization development are my areas of professional expertise from my career before Fielding.

I am starting a practicum doing groups for domestic violence abusers and I have experience with AA groups. My genetic material was altered to NTL specifications shortly before conception in order to optimize me for group dynamics. I am quite sure that group therapy is going to be my focus in clinical practice. I believe that am ready for this seminar.

1. The format I will use for this assessment is: The Felix Seminar.
2. For a breadth demonstration of my knowledge I will respond to the eight topic questions presented on Felix over the four months. The substantive responses will be around 200 lines, when appropriate. I will also discuss the responses of the other participants.

3. For a depth demonstration of my knowledge I will discuss a core topic:

Didactic Approaches In Working With Groups

4. This knowledge area is of central importance to me.
5. The grade I seek is A
